IN London

London in Winter is an inspirational destination and the new season heralds the opening of a host of exhibitions and restaurants. A true shopping Mecca, London offers a refreshing blend of contemporary and classic style, bringing together international names as well as homegrown.

TUMI

Luxury lifestyle, accessories and travel brand Tumi is synonymous with stylish travel. This season, the Tumi woman is off to the ruggedly poetic beauty of Kenya. Inspired by a bygone era of glamour and adventure, the latest offerings from Tumi were created off a palette of earth tones, of neutrals browns, and burnt oranges that suggest a Serengeti sunset with weekend bags and clutches in a Bengal print that exude an animalistic sensuality. For the gentlemen, the Townhouse collection in a grey covert cloth and black Vachetta leather hints at a Saville Row lifestyle of pinstripes, Pimms, and Pimlico. Includes the Brompton, a refined, oversized weekend satchel for the sleek traveller on the go.
