Heidi Klum with Tumi Zebra Voyageur

For many of us, it's back to the dreary routine of the everyday as we try to overcome those post-vacation blues. But lift your spirits with these fresh accessories that will add a much-welcome dash of hot safari adventure.

We simply cannot get enough of the chic yet wonderfully down-to-earth personality that is Heidi Klum, and absolutely love the zebra print luggage set she was recently spotted carrying as she was leaving her Manhattan apartment (above). Made by Tumi, fans of which include Cameron Diaz and Liz Hurley, this trolley comes from its latest Voyageur collection and is made with some of the most resistant materials available- all without sacrificing good taste. For those of you in London, head over to 170 Piccadilly, W1 and pick up your set quick.
